FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ASIS International Announces Call for Presentations for its 9th European Security Conference

Brussels, Belgium (24 September 2009) - ASIS International has announced that it is now accepting abstract submissions for its 2010 European Security Conference.

The 9th ASIS International European Security Conference will take place on 18-21 April 2010 in Lisbon, Portugal. The conference will feature more than 33 high-level educational sessions that will provide valuable new insights and perspectives on security challenges faced regionally in Europe, as well as those that extend globally.

Around 500 senior security professionals from Europe and around the world, corporate executives, consultants, architects and law enforcement officials are expected to participate.

The conference will cover the entire spectrum of security topics ranging from piracy, supply chain security, loss prevention, terrorism, executive protection, intellectual property rights, hotel and building security, and more. Abstracts can be submitted here:

The deadline for submissions is 10 October 2009. Presentations for the conference will be selected by the Lisbon programme committee in December 2009.

The conference will also be the opportunity for vendor companies to present case studies, product demonstrations and best practices in limited number of sponsored speaking tracks. More information about this and other opportunities for companies to raise their visibility is available on <http://www.asisonline.eu> or through the European Bureau at lisbon@asisonline.org.

About ASIS International:

ASIS International (ASIS) is the pre-eminent organisation for professionals responsible for security, with more than 37,000 members worldwide. Founded in 1955, ASIS is dedicated to increasing the effectiveness and productivity of security professionals by developing educational programmes and materials that address broad security interests, such as the ASIS International Annual Seminar and Exhibits, as well as specific security topics. ASIS also advocates the role and value of the security management profession to business, the media, governmental entities and the general public. By providing members and the security community with access to a full range of programmes and services, and by publishing the industry's leading magazine, Security Management, ASIS leads the way for advanced and improved security performance.
