FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ASIS International Announces Call for Presentations for its 8th European Security Conference

Brussels, Belgium (9 July 2008) Following a very successful 7th European Security Conference which was held in Barcelona, Spain on 13-16 April, ASIS International has announced that it is now accepting abstract submissions for its 2009 European Security Conference.

The 8th ASIS International European Security Conference will take place on 26-29 April 2009 in Montreux, Switzerland. The theme of the conference will be "Taking security management to the next level" and will feature more than 33 high-level educational sessions for and by international security experts.

The conference will cover the entire spectrum of security topics ranging from supply chain security, loss prevention, and piracy to terrorism, executive protection, intellectual property rights, and more. Abstracts can be submitted here: <http://asis.confex.com/asis/2009/cfp.cgi>.

The deadline for submissions is 15 October 2008. Presentations for the conference will be selected by the Montreux programme committee in December 2008.

New this year is the possibility for vendor companies to present case studies, product demonstrations and best practices in a fourth sponsored track. More information about this and other opportunities for companies to raise their visibility is available on <http://www.asisonline.eu> or through the European Bureau at montreux@asisonline.org.

About ASIS International:

ASIS International (ASIS) is the pre-eminent organisation for professionals responsible for security, with more than 36,000 members worldwide. Founded in 1955, ASIS is dedicated to increasing the effectiveness and productivity of security professionals by developing educational programmes and materials that address broad security interests, such as the ASIS International Annual Seminar and Exhibits, as well as specific security topics. ASIS also advocates the role and value of the security management profession to business, the media, governmental entities and the general public. By providing members and the security community with access to a full range of programmes and services, and by publishing the industry's leading magazine, Security Management, ASIS leads the way for advanced and improved security performance.
