FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“Security Management – The Way Forward”

Brussels, Belgium (23 January 2007) ASIS International is pleased to announce its 6th Annual European Security Conference, Security Management – The Way Forward, which will be held at the InterContinental Hotel in Berlin, Germany on 25-28 March 2007. The 2006 Conference in Nice attracted 500 security professionals, corporate executives, consultants, and law enforcement officials from 47 countries.

Security Management – The Way Forward will feature 44 high-level educational sessions. High quality presentations developed by and for security professionals will cover the entire spectrum of security topics ranging from supply chain security and piracy to terrorism and IPR protection. It will be a unique opportunity to connect with both public and private sector leaders from around the globe and to discover how they are confronting today's security challenges.

Three high-level keynote speakers will address the participants: Mr Otto Schily, MdB former German Federal Minister of the Interior from 1998 - 2005, Brigadier Ian Abbott, OBE serving Army officer and Britain's deputy Military Representative to the EU with a unique knowledge of both European and global security issues and Mr Robert Benninga, leading authority in the field of Human Peak performance and Change Management.

Delegates will also attend networking events such as the SRVP Welcome Reception at the InterContinental Hotel, as well as the President's Reception at the Museum of Communication. The conference will conclude on Wednesday 28 March with the European Person of the Year 2007 award ceremony.

About ASIS International:

ASIS International (ASIS) is the pre-eminent organisation for professionals responsible for security, with more than 34,000 members worldwide. Founded in 1955, ASIS is dedicated to increasing the effectiveness and productivity of security professionals by developing educational programmes and materials that address broad security interests, such as the ASIS International Annual Seminar and Exhibits, as well as specific security topics. ASIS also advocates the role and value of the security management profession to business, the media, governmental entities and the general public. By providing members and the security community with access to a full range of programmes and services, and by publishing the industry's leading magazine, Security Management, ASIS leads the way for advanced and improved security performance.
