FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ASIS International Accepting Abstract Submissions for 1st Middle East Security Conference

Brussels, Belgium (23 January 2009) ASIS International, the world's largest association for security professionals, has announced that it will organise its inaugural Middle East Security Conference and is now accepting abstracts for presentations.

The 1st ASIS International Middle East Security Conference will take place in Dubai, UAE on 6-9 December 2009 and will feature more than 18 high-level educational sessions for and by international security experts.

The conference will cover the entire spectrum of security topics ranging from hotel security, loss prevention, and maritime piracy to terrorism, executive protection, intellectual property rights, and more. Abstracts can be submitted here:
<http://asis.confex.com/asis/mideast2009/cfp.cgi>.

The deadline for submissions is 3 April 2009. Presentations for the conference will be selected by the programme committee in May 2009.

About ASIS International:

ASIS International (ASIS) is the pre-eminent organisation for professionals responsible for security, with more than 36,000 members worldwide. Founded in 1955, ASIS is dedicated to increasing the effectiveness and productivity of security professionals by developing educational programmes and materials that address broad security interests, such as the ASIS International Annual Seminar and Exhibits, as well as specific security topics. ASIS also advocates the role and value of the security management profession to business, the media, governmental entities and the general public. By providing members and the security community with access to a full range of programmes and services, and by publishing the industry's leading magazine, Security Management, ASIS leads the way for advanced and improved security performance.
